SINCE 1981

Ronald Reagan was President, the Space Shuttle era at NASA was ushered in with the launch of Columbia, Indiana Jones was thrilling audiences in Raiders of the Lost Ark, and television viewers were tuning in each week to J.R. Ewing & family on Dallas.

The year was 1981 when The Lunchbox first opened its doors and invited Knoxville to come in, sit down, and enjoy a homemade lunch. It's been over forty years, and while many things have changed, The Lunchbox is still serving Knoxville delicious homemade lunches Monday through Friday.

We invite you to dine-in at one of our locations or take a lunch to go.
